Madrid

The capital of Spain

Madrid is the capital city, a cultural, economic, historical and industrial center of Spain. It has a population of about 3.2 million inhabitants, or 6.5 millions with the metropolitan area.. The climate varies from very warm and dry in the summer to rainy in the winter.

Madrid is also home of the Royal family, the Spanish Government and many other national institutions.

Madrid is an international city with a lots of tourists and foreign students. It´s the third largest city in the European Union after London and Berlin.

Madrid lies on the River Manzanares and it covers an area of about 604.3 km².

Activity plan

>> The project is about the employability of young Europeans through the art legacy in different countries.

>> It highlights the importance of the cultural heritage as a potential focus of employability and integration between young Europeans in different sectors, the exchange of good practice and the creation of an international association network with the different organisms

>> It helps in developing skills and competencies for the employability of young people through non-formal education. Fight against illicit trade in cultural goods while preserving Cultural Heritage.
